

Christmas Fun

The cookies are cooked and the eggnog is done.
The house is all clean and ready for fun.
Tomorrow the children arrive in a bunch
To decorate, play, make a mess, and (of course) munch!
Santa came early (we know him quite well!)
To add his own Spirit of Peace and Good Will.
The children may not be all nestled in bed,
But they'll be enjoying their childhood, instead.
Christmas rings true within all the world's young;
Its why music is played and Noels are sung.
We all are God's children, so it's OK to play,
For the baby Christ Jesus was born on this day.
