

THE STEWARDSHIP PAPERS

The Reason We Give Gifts at Christmas

The reason we give gifts at Christmas is because it is Jesus' birthday.

When Jesus was born the three Kings gave him presents. This may sound weird, but we give presents to Jesus at Christmas. The reason we can give gifts to Jesus is because he is in everybody and has been from the time when he died and will be until eternity.

The reason that I give presents, besides it being Jesus' birthday, is because I love everyone. It may seem unfair that we give presents to Jesus, but he never gave anything to us while he was alive; but he did. He gave us the gift of dying on the cross for our sake.

Written by James Cody Jensen, age 10, and printed here with permission of the author.

(December 19, 1980)

Jay Jensen, b. May 6, 1970

d. September 27, 1990