

A Christmas Alphabet

A is for the asking of a savior to be born.

B is for the baby in a stable so forlorn.

C is for the Christ child, God on Earth, it has been said.

D is for a donkey which stood beside his bed.

E is for elation from the heavenly hosts above.

F is for some frankincense, a tribute to His love.

G is for a gift of gold, and all the beauty He will bring.

H is for the Herald angels who, to shepherds, sing.

I is for the infant, Israel's prophets had foretold.

J is for the name of Jesus, Son of God, so young yet old.

K is for the King of Glory,

L is for His Loving Story.

M is for the myrrh, a sign of Mary's gift that night.

N is for the night, itself, where shown a star so bright.

O is for the oxen and any lowly thing.

P is for the present that each Wise Man thought to bring.

Q is for a quiet stillness, God's own peace within.

R is for the missing room, no place within the inn.

S is for a star that shown above the cold night air.

T is for the taxes, which brought the couple there.

U is for the universe, forever changed that night.

V is for the victories won by that one sight.

W is for the Wise Men who looked to find the king

X marks where the treasure lay and where the angels sing.

Y is for each Yesteryear and all the years to come.

While Z is just a zenith that marks an end to some.

But every end is a beginning, and as such, it doesn't end,

A circle's point in every life, when New Life comes again.