

Time for Brats

Time for brats and time for beer.
Wish you all could be right here.

Time for whimsy, time for fun.
AIN'T got time to get things done!

Time for double dancing bits.
Time for some banana splits.

Turn the music way up loud.
Time to mingle with a crowd.

Or...

Fast paced nothing for awhile.
Slow paced shuffling with a smile.

Water lapping at my toes.
Fingers tapping 'way the woes.

Time for wading near some shore.
Time for one drink, maybe more.

Watch the tide as it rolls past.
Sometimes slowly, sometimes fast.

For...

Whether life be fast or slow,
Whether winds are still or blow,

Whatever die that may be cast,
It's time to make the good times last.
