

Awakening

Sleepy grasses on a starlit night

Rising colors in the morning light.

Pale moon singing an ivory song

River and stream gently moving along.

Sights and sounds and movement at hand

Combine to reach out and awaken the land.

Grasses waving , clouds moving by

Flowers unfolding, reaching up to the sky.

Bunny nose twitching, antlers in trees

Leaves moving slightly, the buzzing of bees.

On and on and on, so it goes

The mind, and the heart and fingers and toes.

All things awakened, all things caressed

Gently shaken and, unknowingly, blessed.
